HEROES OF THE SOUTH POLE

CAPTAIN SCOTT • CAPTAIN DATES
LIEUTENANT BOWERS • DEWISSON • EVANS

On Fame's eternal camping ground, *
 * * * Their silent tents are spread,
And Glory guards with solemn round
 * * * The bivouac of the dead.

We took risks - we knew we took them...
we have no cause for complaint, but bow to the will of Providence.

Captain Scott set out for the Antarctic on board the Terra Nova, in 1910, and on February 10th, 1913, the tragic news was received in London, that he and four of his comrades who reached the South Pole on January 18th, 1912, had lost their lives on the return journey to their ship. Happily the Captain's Diary has been preserved and gives a record of British heroism to be handed down to all time.
